Consumption at that time was thought to be an incurrible disease, by every one, physicians as well as those who were unlearned in medicine—specially such easies as were reduced to the condition I was in. This induced many people to believe in recovery only temporary. I now prepared and gave the medicines to consumptives for some time, and made many wonderful curse; and the demand increased so rapidly that I determined to offer them to the public, and devote nay undivided attention to lung diseases. In truth, I was next to forced to it, for people would send for me far and near, to assert any undivided attention to lung diseases. In truth, I was next to forced to it, for people would send for me far and near, to assert any material action to the public, and devote not recovery only temporary. For several years post I have made as many as five hundred examinations weekly with the "Respirometer." For such examination my charge is three dollars, and it enables me to give each patient the true condition of his disease, and tell him trankly whether he will get well. The great reason why physicians do not care Consumption is, that they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the ough, to stop the night sweats, heet is fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive system, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient dies.

The Pulmonic Syran is one of the west, rah.

The Pulmonic Syrap is one of the most valuable medicines known. It is mutrient, powerfully tonic, and healing in itself. It contains no opium, yet loosens the phlegm in the bronchial tabes, and nature throws it off with little exertion. One bettle frequently cures an ordinary cold; but it will be well first to take a dose of Schenek's Mandruke's Pills to channe the stomach. The Pulmonic Syrap is readily digested and absorbed into blood, to which it imparis its healing properties. It is one of the best preparations of iran in use; it is a powerful tonic of itself; and when the Seaweed Tonic dissolves the mucus in the stomach, and is carried off by the aid of the Mandruke Pills, a healthy flow of gastric juice, good appetite, and a good digestion follow.

The Seaweed Tonic is a stimulant, and none

The Scaweed Tonic is a stimulant, and none other is required when it is used. It is pure & pleasant; no bad effects like when using Bourbon whisky, which disorders the stomach, forpors the liver, locks up all the secretions, turns the blead into water, dropsy sets in, and the patient dies suddenly.

Bourbon whister is recommended nowardays.

Bourbon whisky is recommended now-a-days by almost every physician. Many patients that visit my rooms, both male and female, are stupiled with this poison. The relief is temporary. If they cough they take a little whisky; if they feel weak and feeble they take a little whisky; if they cannot sleep, they take a little whisky; if they cannot sleep, they take a little whisky, and they go on in this way, requiring more and more until they are bloated up, and imagine they are getting desity. The stemach, liver and diasetive powers are completely destroyed, and lose their appetite for feed. No one was ever cured of consumption by this process, where cavities have been formed in the lungs. A little stimulant is frequently heneficial to consumptives, such as pure brandy or good wine; in many cases London porter or brown stout in molerate quantities; but Bourbon whisky hastens on instead of curing consumption.

The Seaweed Tonie produces lasting results,

The Seaweed Tonie produces lasting results, thoroughly invisorating the stomach and digestive system, and enabling it to climinate & make into healthy blood the food which may be used for that purpose. It is so wonderful in its effects that a wine glass full will digest a hearty meal, and a little of it taken before eating will give a tone to the stomach which few medicines possess the power of doing.

The Mandrake Pills may be taken with entire safety by all ages and conditions, producing all the good results that can be obtained from calouel, or any of the mercurial medicines, and without any of their hurtful or injurious results. They carry out of the system the feculent and worn-out matters loosened and dissolved by my Seaweed Tonic and Pulmonic Syrup. It will be seen that all three of my medicines are needed in most cases to cure Consumption:

SYMPTOMS:

The symptoms of Catairh as they generally appear are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, atterwards becoming theke and achesive. As the discase becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in busilty, they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bail brealty the votes is thick and anneal; the eyes are weak; the sense of the smell is lessened or destroyed; deafines frequently takes place. Another common and imperiant symptom of Catairth is, that the person is offlighed to clear his threat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus, which has fallen down from the head during the night.
